

PLANS TO EDUCATE WHOLE COUNTRY TO NEEDS OF DISTRICT VIGOROUSLY PUSHED

Representative Organizations of Washington to Lay the Facts Before the People of the Country.

Nation-Wide Publicity to Be Given That Fullest Knowledge of Affairs Here May Be Learned by All.

By GEORGE H. GALL.

Anxious only to get the facts about the District of Columbia before Congress and before the whole people of the country, in order that unjust and destructive legislation may be prevented and that just and constructive legislation may be promoted, the people of Washington through their various representative organizations, are today continuing to prosecute their plans, in spite of attacks made upon them by a few members of Congress.

One of the first undertakings of the joint committee of the Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Trade, and the Retail Merchants' Association, discussed at length at a meeting of the committee Monday, probably will be to make an abridgment of the extensive and exhaustive report of the municipal finance committee of the Board of Trade, drawn and submitted by Col. George Truesdell, chairman, and unanimously adopted by the organization January 19, 1912.

History of D. C. Finances.

The report is entitled "Financial Relations of the District of Columbia and the Federal Government from 1871 to 1913, including the Origin, Development, and Justice of the Organic Act of June 11, 1878; Its Adequacy, Permanency, and Inviolability." As the report was submitted, it contained 119 printed pages of text, and deals exhaustively with the financial history of the District of Columbia, and leading up to and following the enactment of the act creating the present form of Government of the District.

To put this report in more concise form, so that members of Congress may more easily become familiar with its contents, it is believed by the committee to be an important duty confronting the members and one entailing much labor and time, in order that it may be ready by the time the District messengers are reached by the House of Representatives and the Senate.

There are radicals in the District of Columbia who would go into the Congressional districts and try to prevent their re-election, believing by so doing that this is the only way in which unfair attacks upon the people of Washington can be combated, but to show that this program is not in contemplation of the committee, the following extract from the introduction of the report which the committee desires to abridge for the information of Congress is pointed to.

Referring to certain members of Congress who oppose the half-and-half method of appropriations for the District, the Municipal Finance Committee says in this extract:

All these gentlemen are men of sincere and strong convictions, as are others who share their views upon this subject, and they have not hastily reached their conclusions. They are the official representatives of the people of Columbia on the floor of the House, and aided by that fact, and guided, as they unquestionably are, in all their utterances and efforts by a high sense of duty to the entire country, under the responsibility of their oath of office, they constitute today the greatest menace to the integrity of the half-and-half plan that has existed since the passage of the organic act.

"But formidable as this array of forces may be, and threatening as they really are to the business interests and growth and prosperity of the National Capital, the committee believes, nevertheless, that the opinions of these gentlemen are based upon a misconception of the law and lack of knowledge of all the facts and conditions which led up to its enactment, and, therefore, hope that a proper presentation of the case will so appeal to their reason and sense of justice as to induce them to reconsider and change their views."

Thus, it is explained, it is the burden of the representative committee above all things to do whatever is in its power to correct misunderstanding and mis-

IS RENOMINATED AS MEMBER OF I. C. C.

Copyrighted by Buck.
JUDSON C. CLEMENTS.

CLEMENTS NAMED TO SUCCEED HIMSELF

President Sends Name to Senate as Member of Interstate Commerce Commission.

President Wilson today sent to the Senate the nomination of Judson C.
Clements, to succeed himself as member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, to succeed himself.
Should the Senate approve this nomination, which is expected, Judge Clements will begin January 1, his fifth successive term as a commissioner.
News of his nomination was received at the Interstate Commerce Commission today with a real sense of joy and relief that extended from the commissioners to the members of the public who are interested in the work of the commission. Judge Clements is regarded as one of the most highly qualified men for railroad regulatory work in the country.
Judge Clements was first appointed March 3, 1892, to fill the unexpired term of Martin Brazy, deceased. He was reappointed in 1894, to a full term in 1896, and in 1906, and again today, in all of his years of service no opinion rendered by him has ever in substance been reversed by the Supreme Court, it is said. The term to which he is now appointed runs for seven years, from January 1, 1913, to January 1, 1920.
Some opposition to the nomination was made on the score that he was too old, by those in favor of Governor Glenn of North Carolina.
Judge Clements is a lawyer and was a member of Congress before entering the commission. He is a native of Georgia, and helped frame the commerce law.

WILSON IS READY TO BEGIN HIS VACATION

Will Take Anti-Trust Data to Pass Christian to Prepare Special Message.

Immediately after signing the currency bill today the President will complete his arrangements for his vacation. He will depart late tonight for Pass Christian, accompanied by Mrs.
Wilson, his daughters, Misses Margaret and Eleanor; Miss Bones, Dr. Cary T.
Grayson, his physician, and a corps of Secret Service men and correspondents.
The party will travel as a special section of a regular train departing on the Southern railway about 10:30 o'clock.
The President also will have with him his stenographers, Charles Swen, and a pile of data concerning anti-trust legislation, which he will take with him to Pass Christian, where he will prepare his special message to Congress on anti-trust legislation, and to select, if possible, the members of the Federal Reserve Board.
The last of the Cabinet meetings before the President departs was held at the Executive Offices this morning. It is understood that the President, in a general way, mapped out his ideas regarding trust legislation, and also asked the members to keep him advised of any of the problems which might come up before their departments.

Preachers Ask Low Rates on Railroads

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 22.—The Public Service Commission had before it today a petition from 170 preachers in Pennsylvania asking restoration of the clerical rate on the railroads, which they claim is unjust as to induce them to reconsider and change
their views.

Fishermen Narrowly Escape Drownings

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Twenty-five Hoboken fishermen and eight sailors narrowly escaped from drowning today when the fishing schooner Seneca was rammed and sunk, just after she left her pier, by the tug Daniel Wil- lard. The crew worked gallantly to save the frightened fishermen and the captain, the last to leave, got away just as the schooner went down.

XMAS HOLIDAYS DELAY DISTRICT APPROPRIATIONS

Bill Only Half Read When House Meets to See Currency Measure Signed.

DEBATE ON SCHOOL CLAUSE

Members Meet Late and Prepare to Depart for Home on Night Trains.

Hope of passing the District of Columbia appropriation bill before the holidays was abandoned today in the House and that body, which convened at 2:30 o'clock, had before it only the desire of seeing the currency bill signed by the Speaker—and the gateway. The District bill is but half read and there is pending, for later decision, a number of important provisions, including the legislative rider to prohibit collections for any purpose among school children.

Bill Only Half Read.

Congressman Page, chairman of the subcommittee in charge of the District bill, practically abandoned plans at midnight for passing the bill before Christmas. Mr. Mann said there was no hope of getting the bill through, and consequently the House met late today and for the sole purpose of witnessing the signature of the Administration currency bill. Outgoing trains tonight will carry three members to their homes for Christmas.

Following the recent publication in The Times that school officials considered the anti-collection rider on the District bill as a blow at entertainments and funds for school athletics, Congressman Willis of Ohio made a point of order, claiming that the bill was not a law, and that it was not a law until it was signed by the President.
The point of order was acknowledged by Mr. Page, who proposed a substitute without reference to politics and simply from the standpoint of what is best for the country. This seems to have been the reason for the delay in passing the bill, and it is believed that the bill will be passed before the holidays.

School Clause Amended.

Mr. Page finally offered as a substitute the following language:
"No part of any money appropriated by this act shall be paid in or in connection with the collection of money from pupils for any purpose, or for the collection of money for any purpose, or for the collection of money for any
